Mrs. Carl Stoeckel has received with grateful appreciation, the courteous invitation of the President and members of the Council of the American Numismatic Society, to attend an Inaugural Exhibition of coins on Thursday afternoon, November thirteenth.
She regrets that she cannot accept this kind invitation.

In looking over articles in this house (built by her grandfather in 1800) Mrs. Stoeckel found bronze medals more recently acquired of course of which she sends a list. Should the Numismatic Society care for them she will gladly send them as a gift. They are most of them enclosed in leather velvet lined cases about four inches square.

If of no value to the Numismatic Society may Mrs Stoeckel ask for the return of the list which she sends in the enclosed envelope addressed to herself.

4th November
1930.

Mrs. Carl Streckel

Norfolk, Conn.

Dear Madam:

Our President, Mr. Newell, has handed me your letter acknowledging the receipt of an invitation to the opening of our Museum, and offering to make a gift to the Museum of the medals outlined in the accompanying list. We accept with thanks your offer and should be happy to receive the medals. I am returning the list to you and again express our thanks and appreciation.

Very truly yours,

Curator.
